IB Community Project Annotated Bibliography Assignment

Due date: October 24 (red) and 25 (purple)

IMPORTANT: If you are working in a group, each person from the group must turn in their own copy of the bibliography (it should be the exact same bibliography, but each person should turn one in for credit).

20 Point Class Work Grade

Directions: You will receive a grade for your IB Project bibliography in your history class. You must have at least FIVE SOURCES. You must create a bibliography page that has MLA citations for all of your sources. You will also include a brief summary (2-3 full, complete sentences) explaining what information you gathered from the source and how it helped you with your project. It should typed when you turn it in. Points will be taken off if it is emailed to me instead of turning in a paper copy.

You are welcome to use a site like easybib.com to create your MLA citations. Below is the proper format for MLA citations for different sources and an example of what your completed annotated bibliography should look like.

For BOOKS:

Lastname, Firstname. Title of Book. City of Publication: Publisher, Year of Publication. Print.

For PERIODICALS (magazines, newspapers, scholarly journals):

Author(s). "Title of Article." Title of Periodical Day Month Year: pages. Print.

For WEB PUBLICATIONS (websites or images from the web):

Editor, author, or compiler name (if available). Name of Site. Publisher, year (if available). Accessed on Date. Medium of publication.

You can look up how to cite other types of sources such as documentaries, interviews, etc. on Purdue OWL website.

Bibliography

Lamott, Anne. Bird by Bird: Some Instructions on Writing and Life. Anchor Books, 1995.

Chapters in this text could easily be included in the curriculum for a writing class. Several of the chapters in Part 1 address the writing process and would serve to generate discussion on students' own drafting and revising processes. Some of the writing exercises would also be appropriate for generating classroom writing exercises. Students should find Lamott's style both engaging and enjoyable.
